Dear Parents/Carers,

Our value for the month of March is HELPFULNESS.

Helpfulness is the quality to give or being ready to give help.

The children at Lambley are very helpful; looking out for one another and always offering to help staff. We want to use this month to remind all children why it is so important but to also celebrate these moments when our children are so helpful. We want them to also understand that helping others is good for two reasons: it helps somebody else but also can make us feel good about ourselves (which is also very important).

To support our work at school, it would be great if you could discuss it with them at home. To carefully explain to them, not only the meaning of helpfulness, but how they can show this in school and at home every day.

Indeed, we can use this time to explain to the children that sometimes it can be the smallest gesture that shows how helpful we can be. I was once told by a teacher just how important being helpful is. They told me, if I ever saw someone without a smile, be helpful and give them mine. A lovely sentiment that truly shows the value of helpfulness in its simplest form.

Thank you for your continued support and help with our key school values.

The Lambley Team

We believe that safeguarding children is everyone's responsibility.

At Lambley we are committed to keeping our children safe from harm. Lee Christopher, Rebecca Shardlow and Jennifer Swinburne have responsibility for safeguarding & child protection. If we have any concerns reported to us we will always take action to protect a child and inform the relevant agencies.
