“Perseverance is the key to success. Never give up and keep making efforts. It’s often the last key in the bunch that opens the lock.”

Dear Parents/Carers,

Our value for the month of April is PERSEVERANCE.

There’s the old adage that says, “If at first you don’t succeed, try, try again.” This captures the essence of perseverance. When things get hard, and often they do, it is the persistence and determination to carry on that ultimately brings success.

As we enter the final term of the school year, we want the children to show true determination and perseverance so that come the end of the year, we can all celebrate their successes together.

I firmly believe that your children can achieve anything they want, if they are prepared to keep trying, keep trying and keep trying. Various studies have shown that perseverance is an essential quality for success in life. In fact, perseverance often tops aptitude and raw talent.

Persevering entails effort and practice. This month, we will be talking to the children about persevering and believing in themselves. We will remind them just how important a ‘growth mindset’ is and celebrate their determination and willingness to always be their best.

To support our work at school, it would be great if you could discuss it with them at home. To carefully explain to them, not only the meaning of perseverance, but what it actually looks like in real life and how they can show it in school every day.

With very best wishes,

The Lambley Team
